Von Droste-Huelshoff, Annette (1797-1848) wrote about the “Muehlental of Alme”

“ Just proud concerning its location, perhaps Westphalia’s crown, and to stop claiming its reign anymore: actually one should have seen this valley where fierceness and appeal melt together on such rare ground. Who might reproduce the impression of these heavy but busy and flowery dingles? Who might describe the shapes of these strange brave but almost dainty stony peaks precisely?”
